The Kentucky Supreme Court Wants to Talk with YOU about Race and the

The Kentucky Supreme Court, under the leadership of Chief Justice Minton, is starting a series of sessions with the public on race and the court system. The first session is May 16- see the information. There will be resource people from all aspects of the court system and the systems that attached, like Corrections, Public Defender, Prosecutor, and more. You can attend this session and learn about the sessions on specific topics that will occur such as the bail system, evictions and others.

The Court system affects us, our families and the people we work with - it is important for you to talk about how you experienced the court system and what can be better.

This is YOUR chance to be heard. You can begin by filling out a confidential survey that is online https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/JeffCoCOURTS.

The Housing Needs Assessment: Impact on Fair Housing

On April 18 many groups sponsored a forum on the impact of the new Housing Needs Assessment on fair housing. What is the Louisville Housing Needs Assessment? The study is the first full assessment of housing needs across all of Louisville/Jefferson County. The Louisville Affordable Housing Trust Fund (LAHTF) and Develop Louisville's Office of Housing & Community Development (OHCD) commissioned this assessment, including recommendations. The report identifies the need for 31,412 units at or below 30% of Area Median Income (AMI). Click HERE to visit the LAHTF website and access the full report, executive summary, appendix, and all 21 housing market area profiles.

The forum had a deep history of racial discrimination in housing in Louisville, presented by Art Crosby of the Fair Housing Council. Christie McCravy of the LAHTF and Marilyn Harris of the OHCD did a great job discussing what the HNA found, the report recommendations, and how this affects protected classes. Kendall Boyd of the Louisville Metro Human Relations Commission talked about the report recommendations and how to create true housing choice for all.

Did you know that 2019 is the 30th Anniversary of the Metropolitan Housing Coalition (MHC)?

STAY TUNED FOR UPCOMING EVENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

CAN YOU AFFORD TO RENT THIS UNIT?
With grant funding from the Louisville Bar Foundation and the Louisville Affordable Housing Trust Fund (LAHTF), the Metropolitan Housing Coalition (MHC) is partnering with the Louisville Urban League, Legal Aid Society Louisville, and the Lexington Fair Housing Council to create Renter Center, a rental readiness program designed to educate renters about their rights and responsibilities and how to have a successful tenure as a renter.
